

We are the night

Can you feel it coming..?
- The storm begins to rise
Save the things worth loving;
the winds will change our times
The hurricane makes us divine

You and me, we ride on a sound
We are, we are, we are alive
We are, we are, we are the night
We fly so high, so blind and survive
We are, we are, we are the night

Faith is a frontline:
Saviors - they "see the light"
And yet, I bet they don't have a clue...
So why trust their eyes?

You and me, we ride on a sound
We are, we are, we are alive
We are, we are, we are the night
We fly so high, so blind and survive
We are, we are, we are the night

This feels new,
I'm healed too
I hear you... calling

You and me, we ride on a sound
We are, we are, we are alive
We are, we are, we are the night
We fly so high, so blind and survive
We are, we are, we are the night

Let the sun hide in fear

Disappear, disappear

(Let the sun hide in fear)
We are, we are, we are the night
(Disappear, disappear)

(Let the sun hide in fear)
(Disappear, disappear)
We are, we are, we are
(Let the sun hide in fear)
(Disappear, disappear)
We are, we are, we are the night
